

THE SITE FOR WOMEN'S OPPORTUNITY CENTER IN KAYONZA:
Brickmaking Begins October 3, 2010

Project Manager for designing the center, Bruce Engel, looking out on the future site for brickmaking.

First bricks crafted and printed with press.

A message from Bruce on October 10:

“Last week was the first official week of production. By the end of the week, they were singing and dancing and giving high fives to me. It was an awesome feeling and a big step forward. There had been a long lead up to that moment. Still have a ways to go though...” -B
